Upcoming Development: Dubai-Al Ain Road

85% of the 2 Billion Dirhams improvement program on-going for Dubai – Al Ain road is done and once completed, it will take around 20 mins from the Edison House to Burj Khalifa district. This development project will serve the traffic coming from the Dubailand Residence Complex heading west to the Dubai-Al Ain road towards Dubai.

It will also ensure the flow of traffic and serve the residential communities on both sides of the road, which includes Dubai Silicon Oasis, Dubailand Residence Complex, Liwan, Meydan, and Dubai Design District.

Dubai's largest park coming up in DubaiLand

Dubai is building the city's largest public park, as big as London's Hyde Park

Upcoming Development: Dubai's Largest Park

Dubai is building the city's largest public park, as big as London's Hyde Park, in DubaiLand. Once complete, the new park will be almost equal to the size of London's Hyde Park spread across 350 acres and three times bigger than Dubai's Zabeel Park. It will act as a new destination for residents and tourists and provide a vibrant, natural environment, encouraging individuals to lead a healthy and active lifestyle.

The park will provide a number of spaces that encourage exploration of nature and year-round activity for its visitors, including 30km pedestrian pathways, 20km jogging track, over 14km cycle tracks and over 7km nature trails. It will also include 55 playgrounds for children, 45 sports grounds, five major events areas and retail space for shops, restaurants and coffee shops.
